Hello everybody, Sawadee Kubb!

Welcome participants to Phuket, Thailand! I am very delighted to see you compete in the 27th series of the World Amateur Golfers Championship (WAGC). Phuket, as the Thailand's exquisite and great Island in Asia, famous for its tourist spots, nightlife, food and diverse cultural festivals. I am confident you will enjoy everything that this island has to offer.

This year you will be housed at the Angsana Laguna Phuket & Cassia Phuket which lies adjacent to the beach-front. I dare state that all participants will be spoilt, as far as the golf is concerned, with the four competition venues being Laguna Golf Phuket, Blue Canyon Country Club, Red Mountain Golf Club and Aquealla Golf Country Club.

The WAGC is an important event on the sporting calendar whereby amateur golfers of all levels get the opportunity to compete in a global championship. More importantly, this great event brings together golfers from all corners of the world and allows for long lasting friendships and business relationships. I have had the honor of being the Chairman of this worldwide tournament created by my longtime friend, the late Sven Tumba, a Swedish icon in ice-hockey, soccer, water-skiing and golf, of course.

It is indeed a privilege for me to play the role as golf ambassador to all the participating countries and I sincerely wish that everyone will go home with positive memories of this Final and continue to support this amazing event.

I applaud WAGC President Isaac Saminathan and his team for all their efforts in successfully raising the World Amateur Golfers Championship to the incredible level that it is now enjoying.

On behalf of WAGC Ltd and our entire team, I wish you good health and the best of luck.

All the best and keep on swinging.

Mr. Sophon Suwannarat

Governor of Phuket Province

With year-round sunny weather and the availability of international-standard golf courses, Phuket considers golfing as a niche tourism product with the potential to attract international tourist arrivals.

It is a great honour to be part of this prestigious and world's largest amateur golf championships, which have been held in the United States, Europe and South Africa. This significant championship certainly augurs well with our strategy to position Phuket as an international golf destination.

I like to take this opportunity to specially thanked Delta World and WAGC, the event promoter and management company for WAGC, which undertakes the overall operations of this WAGC World Final in Phuket from 4-11 November 2023.

As we are welcoming a large number of 500 top amateur golfers this time around, I would say that our local golfing fraternity and tourism industry are ready to extend our hospitality to make your stay in Phuket an unforgettable experience. I must say that this time of year is perfect for indulging in the sheer beauty of our exquisite beaches and immersing oneself in the vibrant local flavors and cultural richness of our community tourist destination in this area, including the captivating

Phuket Colorful Old town.

I wish you a pleasant stay in Phuket.

Dear Golf Friends,

Once again, the World Amateur Golfers Championship (WAGC), together with the World Amateur Golfers Invitational (WAGI), will be held in Phuket, Thailand from 4-11 November 2023. The Sven Tumba creation turns 27 years of continued operation in greater heights!

This year, the tournament returned to Thailand where you all are staying at the Angsana Laguna Phuket and play at four premium and exclusive golf courses. They are the Laguna Golf Phuket, Blue Canyon Country Club, Red Mountain Golf Club and Aquella Golf Country Club. I hope you get to play your best golf ever and enjoy your game at the very least at these great courses.

Before the tournaments moves on next year, here is your one more chance to shine in Thailand and do your country proud, either by winning the WAGC for your national team or individual effort.

But regardless of the championship results, all those who have displayed great sportsmanship are winners in the eyes of others and remember "SPORT PROMOTES FRIENDSHIP AND BUSINESS"

And that is the very aim and essence of WAGC and WAGI. Let us meet up with friends from all corners of the world, enjoy the game and the camaraderie.

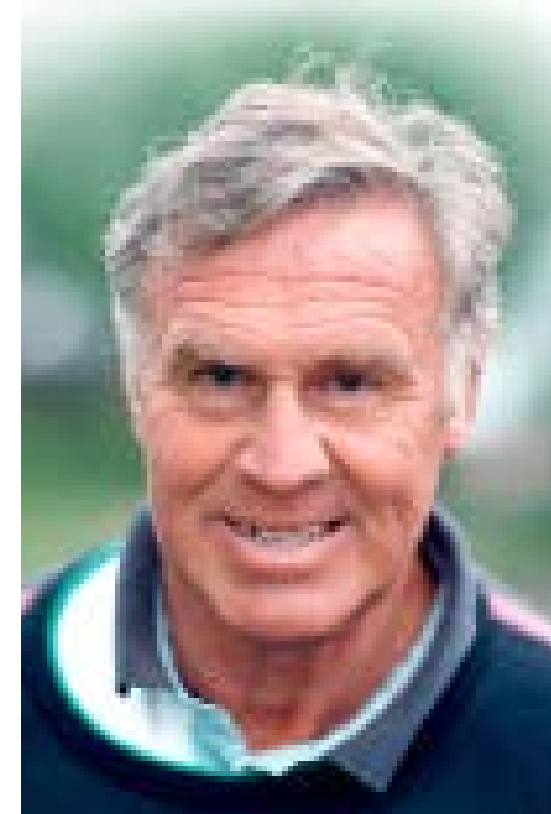

Celebrate life, have a good time and keep swinging!

Jesper Parnevik

IN MEMORIAM

Sven Tumba

OUR BELOVED
FOUNDER OF WAGC
AND GOLFING FRIEND

"Sport Promotes Friendship and Business"

Sven Tumba (born Sven Olof Gunnar Johansson; 27 August 1931 - 1 October 2011) was one of the most prominent Swedish ice hockey players of the 1950s and 1960s. He also represented Sweden in football as well as golf.

Johansson first became known as "Tumba" in the 1950s since there were other players with the same last name, and he grew up in the Swedish town of Tumba. In October 1960 he married his wife Mona and five years later he, along with Mona, legally changed his family name to Tumba.

After his retirement from hockey, he became an accomplished golfer, a golf course designer as well as an ambassador to the game of golf, even officially introducing the game of golf to the former Soviet Union. He died on 1 October 2011 after being on the Danderyds sjukhus hospital for three months due to an infection in the hip. He was subsequently honored prior to the Elitserien games that were played that day, with a one-minute silence. His body was buried at the Engelbrekt church in Östermalm, Stockholm, on 20 October 2011. Approximately 500 friends and relatives arrived at the church to leave flowers and honour Sven Tumba.

Ice Hockey

Tumba played for the Swedish club Djurgårdens IF from 1950 to 1966, winning eight Swedish Championships and leading the league top goal scorer three years. He had a lengthy international career, playing for Sweden at 14 IIHF World Championships, four Winter Olympics, named best forward at the 1957 and 1962 World Championships and top scorer at the 1964 Winter Olympics. He also captained the national team. Djurgårdens has retired number 5 in his honor.

Tumba still holds the Swedish scoring record of 186 goals (in 245 games) for the Swedish national team.

In 1997 he was inducted into the IIHF Hall of Fame and was in 1999 awarded the "Best Swedish Ice-hockey Player of All Times", outvoting prominent players such as Peter Forsberg and Mats Sundin.

Tumba was the first European player to attend an NHL training camp, with the Boston Bruins in 1957. Friendships and business relationships that have been formed through his great vision to unite people through sport, regardless of language or cultural barriers, are testament to a legacy that is alive and prospering.

It remains our privilege and honour as golfers, to keep Sven's spirit alive through the World Amateur Golfers Championship.

The landscape of the golf course has been carefully selected to focus on sustainability and visual impact, using colourful tropical vegetation, several of which are native to the Aquella site, all of which will be a haven for wildlife for golfers to enjoy.
